International Conference on Soil and Environment

22nd - 23rd July 2016

INDIAN GEOTECHNICAL SOCIETY, BANGALORE CHAPTER AND
DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL ENGINEERING,
INDIAN INSTITUTE OF SCIENCE, BANGALORE

History of IGS Bangalore Chapter

Indian Geotechnical Society, Bangalore Chapter has a long history of having started as The Mysore Centre of Soil Mechanics and Foundation Engineering at UVCE, Bangalore University in 1964. With advent of time, the above Centre was renamed as Karnataka Geotechnical Centre (KGC) Bangalore and became a local chapter of Indian Geotechnical Society (IGS). Currently, the IGS Bangalore Chapter is situated in the Department of Civil Engineering, Indian Institute of Science. The Chapter earned great recognition in the field of Geotechnical Engineering nurtured by the outstanding commitment to the society and profession by several of its esteemed members. Several members of the Chapter have served the national body (IGS) as presidents and executive committee members and delivered IGS annual lectures. IGS Bangalore Chapter hosted the Asian Regional Conference (ARC) in 1975 and Indian Geotechnical conferences (IGC) in 1961, 1975, 1987, 1995 and 2008, Asian International Young Geotechnical Engineers Conference (AYGEC) 2008 and International Seminar on Forensic Geotechnical Engineering in 2013. The Chapter organizes Prof. B.K. Ramiah Memorial Lecture annually as a mark of respect to its founder. The Chapter also holds Prof. T.S. Nagaraj Memorial Lecture bi-annually and many other technical activities.

About the Conference

To felicitate one of its distinguished members Prof. P.V. Sivapullaiah, who is retiring from the Department of Civil Engineering at Indian Institute of Science after a career spanning 39 years, IGS Bangalore Chapter in association with the Department of Civil Engineering, Indian Institute of Science is conducting International Conference "Soil and Environment" during 22nd-23rd July 2016.
